Kennedy Wilson Announces New Strategic Alliance

Kennedy Wilson, Urban Partners and Keller CMS to collaborate on real estate related activities

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Kennedy Wilson (NYSE Amex: KWIC) today announced the formation of a strategic alliance between Keller CMS, Urban Partners and Kennedy Wilson. The alliance will pursue a variety of real estate related activities, including property management and construction related functions. Paul Keller and Matt Burton of Urban Partners and Bob Hart and Stuart Cramer of Kennedy Wilson will spearhead the effort.

“This is a highly experienced group of real estate and construction professionals, and we are delighted to be teaming up together on this alliance,” Hart, CEO and president of Kennedy Wilson’s Multifamily Management Group, stated.

“Urban Partners and Keller CMS are excited about this new relationship with the outstanding team at Kennedy Wilson,” Burton, principal at Urban Partners, said. “The three firms are complementary in their areas of expertise including planning, construction, capitalization, project and property management and disposition via auctions or retail sales.”

The alliance partners have over 60 years of combined experience in real estate planning, design, construction, sales, marketing and property management.
